M. J. ROSENAU,
Passed Assistant Surgeon, U. S. M. H. S.

[Reports to the Supervising Surgeon-General United States Marine-Hospital Service.]

*Two smallpox cases in Pensacola, Fla.*JACKSONVILLE, FLA., March 31, 1896.

SIR: You are hereby notified of the occurrence of a case of smallpox in Pensacola, Escambia County, Fla., on March 16, in the person of John Wilson, a negro, aged 32, who died of said disease on the following Saturday. All precautions observed. No further cases reported.

Yours, truly,

W. B. HENDERSON,
President State Board of Health.

PENSACOLA, FLA., April 7, 1896.

SIR: I have the honor to inform you of a second case of smallpox that has made its appearance in this city, and has been reported to the board of health by Drs. Herron and Anderson. The case has been sent to the pesthouse, and the house will be fumigated and effects of patient destroyed. The first case reported to you died.

Respectfully, yours,

J. WHITING HARGIS,
Acting Assistant Surgeon, U. S. M. H. S.
